

idea of democracy, like the importance of self-expression, respect for different opinions, and the value of agreeing prepares me to be a responsible citizen in the future.

In conclusion, a young person's voice is important for the voice of American Democracy. As the future leaders and decision makers of America, the future generation is very important to the future of the United States of America. Social media helps the younger generation spread their ideas and opinions very easily. While 13 years old is young, it isn't too young to share your ideas and opinions with other people.
